Alan Doyle Rough Side Out Tour

Date and Time: Tuesday, March 3 08:00 p.m. - 10:30 p.m.

Event Location: Keyano Theatre

Presented by Live Nation

Iconic Newfoundland singer-songwriter, best-selling author, actor and recent recipient of the Order of Canada, Alan Doyle released his third solo album, A Week At The Warehouse, on October 13, 2017 via Universal Music. A Week At the Warehouse was recorded live off the floor with Doyle’s band and legendary producer Bob Rock at the helm. The album is chock-a-block with country-tinged, radio-ready tunes that carry Doyle’s signature blend of traditional and modern flavours. Rock’s own band, Payola$, is celebrated with a cover of “Forever Light Will Shine” – which includes a guest vocal from none other than Paul Hyde. The album’s first single, the call to the campfire salvo “Summer Summer Night” was released in June 2017.

Doyle was the lead singer of iconic Canadian band Great Big Sea, known for fusing traditional Newfoundland music with their own pop sensibilities. Their nine albums, double-disc hits retrospective, and two DVD releases have all been declared Gold or Platinum and have sold a combined 1.2 million copies in Canada. His third solo album continues to cement Doyle’s reputation as one of Canada’s most treasured musicians and storytellers. In Doyle’s words, “I always want people to have the greatest night of their life when the house lights go down.”

One dollar from every ticket sold for this show will go to support the A Dollar A Day Foundation! Every online ticket purchased comes with one physical copy of Alan Doyle’s forthcoming EP (available February 14, 2020). Approximately 7 days after purchase, you will receive an additional email with instructions on how to redeem your album. Canadian residents only. One CD per online ticket. Not valid for Fan to Fan Resale.

Snowed in Comedy Tour

Date and Time: Friday, March 6 08:00 p.m. - 10:30 p.m.

Event Location: Keyano Theatre

The Snowed In Comedy Tour has turned into a Canadian success story, celebrating its twelfth year. The tour has now grown to be the largest in Canada with 70 cities from Coast to Coast. The tour has now performed in Australia, The US, France, and Switzerland. The 2019 tour received numerous Standing Ovations and was the most successful to date. Without major TV credits the growth of the tour is all attributed to word of mouth from delivering knockout performances year after year.

Four international comedians come together to create one amazing show with each bringing a unique and hilarious take providing something for everyone. Just for Laughs winner Dan Quinn is joined by the Great Canadian Laugh Off winner, Paul Myrehaug and 6 time Canadian Comedian of the year nominee Pete Zedlacher. We are proud to announce that Erica Sigurdson with over 50 appearances on the Debaters, will be joining us. Don’t miss out on the comedy show called “Better than the Just for Laughs Tour” and “Delivers a Flurry of Laughs”.

Rated 16+

Be sure to check out their new video series “Truck Jokes” as you get to see what it’s like when 4 comedians drive together and try to make each other laugh.

Pointe shoes are so unique – both to the art form and to each individual dancer. It can be one of the most exciting parts in a young dancers training, but along with that excitement comes lots of questions! This workshop provides the opportunity for aspiring dancers to hear directly from an experienced professional dancer exactly what a dancer goes through to have the best pointe. We will talk about everything that goes in to training on pointe – the muscles, the lines, the fatigue, the injuries and more!

How do you:
- Choose the brand, style, size, width, shank, vamp?
- Adjust your shoes throughout your training and a career?
- Decide where to sew ribbons and elastics
- Darn your shoes and why you would
- Make your shoes last longer?
- Manage blisters, toe nails, cracked heels and more?
- Decide what to wear inside your shoes? Tape, ouch pouch, spacers, etc.

The (Re)Connection Revolution: An Evening with Dr. Jody Carrington

Date and Time: Thursday, March 12 07:00 p.m. - 10:00 p.m.
Event Location: Keyano Theatre

Thursday, March 12, 7 PM
NEW DATE ADDED: Friday, March 13, 7 PM

Parents of Panthers Presents… The (Re)Connection Revolution: An Evening with Dr. Jody Carrington Dr. Jody Carrington is a Clinical Psychologist from rural Alberta and the author of the incredible book “Kids these days”. Jody passionately believes in the power of the relationship with people we love, lead, and teach.

This evening is all about YOU. An evening where Dr. Jody Carrington will remind you that you’re wired to do hard things. You’re able to do those hard things so much easier when you remember this: You are wired for connection. This event is designed to inspire, renew your soul, and kick you in the ass, all rolled up with a lot of laughter and maybe a few tears.

Dr. Jody Carrington will also talk all about relationships and what it looks like in the connections (and disconnections) that we have with our babies, our teens, our partners, and our colleagues. Connection is a universal language and disconnection is the biggest problem we face today.

Derina Harvey Band

Date and Time: Tuesday, March 17 08:00 p.m. - 10:30 p.m.
Event Location: Keyano Theatre
Proudly presented by Keyano Theatre and Syncrude Arts Alive

Fearless front-woman Derina Harvey leads this Celtic rock group, who are winners of the People’s Choice Award at the 2018 Edmonton Music Awards.
The group offers a fresh take on traditional folk songs as well as an increasing amount of original material. The band has a rocky, rhythmic undertow; layered with guitars, fiddle, and topped by Derina’s powerful voice. dHb has been likened to a rockier version of Canada’s Great Big Sea if fronted by Adele, and has earned a reputation as a high-energy live show.

This family friendly concert also features a special guest appearance from the Brady Academy of Irish Dancers.

Haphazardly Ever After

Date and Time: Wednesday, March 25 07:00 p.m.
Event Location: Keyano Theatre
Ecole Dickinsfield Presents:

Haphazardly Ever After The Musical
A kind king and queen have trouble in their royal family — four obnoxious, bratty, adult children who do not live up to their royal titles. There’s the mean Princess Cinnamon, the not-so-bright Princess Peppermint, the vain Prince Hairgel and Prince Slacker, who thinks being a prince is just way, way too hard. The king and queen try everything to bring happiness and harmony to their family. They hire a royal therapist, bring in royal teachers and even attempt to marry off their children, all to no avail. The king and queen are ready for a happily-ever-after that doesn’t include adult children still living at home, so they call upon the fairy godmother to help. However, after learning the outrageous cost of hiring the fairy godmother (let alone the permits required), the king and queen decide to create a do-it-yourself fairy tale with the help of supplies purchased at The Enchanted Depot. Royal chaos! Of course, nothing goes as planned, but everyone is changed by their experiences. And through a series of haphazard events, the royal family just might live happily ever after, after all.

Book by Jeff Fluharty
Music and Lyrics by Scott Deturk
Produced by special arrangement with pioneer Drama Service, Inc., Denver, Colorado
